Fearless Living

Live Without Excuses and Love without Regrets

Rhonda Britten from “Starting Over” TV show, life coach, best-selling author, Oprah guest and New Thought spiritual practitioner who has helped thousands of people learn to be more fearless in their everyday lives through her workshops and the Fearless Living Institute, which she founded.

Your fears might show up as worry, guilt, procrastination, isolation or loss of motivation. You might be afraid to be rejected, look stupid or feel a loss of worth or confidence. Or maybe your life is good and you just want to know how to better support your neighbors and friends. I will be leading a group using “Fearless Living” and Rhonda’s tried and true principles to help you be Fearless, too.

Bring your copy of Rhonda Britten’s book “Fearless Living” and I will furnish study questions for you to complete. Begin the journey now! Be Fearless.
